

Project Management for Accountants

Everyone in business today can benefit from an understanding of the basics of professional project management, including accountants. Whether you are leading a large project in accounting such as a software or system conversion, or you are managing a smaller project such as an audit, knowing the essentials of project management can help you ensure not only a positive outcome, but an efficient outcome as well. Delays and inaccuracies that are caused by poor project management processes are costly. Knowing the basics and essentials of effective project management can help you better execute on even some of the simplest tasks you encounter in your everyday job.

We will cover topics such as:

- ▶ Defining what a project truly is
- ▶ Revealing the 5 process groups
- ▶ 10 knowledge areas in structured project management
- ▶ Practical applications in the accounting world

Join Us!

Date: Tuesday, February 4, 2020

Time: 11:30 Registration & Lunch
Class from 11:45 – 1:00

Location: “NEW” Training Center,
901 NE Loop 410, Ste. 425

ONLY $50

CE credit for CPAs – 1.5 Hours

Prerequisites: None

PRESENTER BIO

As owner of Inspired Business Consulting in San Antonio, Texas Deborah Reinagel has established a three-decade career history of improving business systems for a variety of industries by utilizing technology, data intelligence and project management best practices. Inspired Business Consulting works with business leaders to streamline business performance and increases earnings thru Project Planning, Data Analytics and Financial Management. Prior to consulting, Deborah was the Director of Program Management for a Healthcare organization in San Antonio. She has worked in public accounting and as Director of finance for her family’s business in Corpus Christi, Texas.

Ms. Reinagel is an alumna of Texas A&M Corpus Christi with a BBA in Finance, PMP, and Certified Six Sigma Green Belt. She currently serves on the Board of the Alamo Chapter of the Project Management Institute as VP of Finance.